ARCAS-Intellexus Workshop

March 18–20, 2025

Shechen Monastery, Kathmandu, Nepal

This is the second workshop that focuses on the collaboration between the ARCAS project, which is devoted to the study of early literature of the rNying-ma tradition, and the ERC Synergy Intellexus project, whose goal is to map the Indic and Tibetan Buddhist text corpora. The workshop will be devoted to the proofreading of the bibliographical material compiled by ARCAS and to the preparation of the publication of the first book in the ARCAS series and the following online publication of selected data to the Intellectual Ecosystem Database currently being developed by Intellexus. The workshop will take place in Shechen monastery, Kathmandu, Nepal during March 18–20, 2025. It will be led by Dorji Wangchuk and Orna Almogi, and will include the ARCAS team, which currently consists of Khenpo Tashi Dorje, Khenpo Choephel Norbu, Khenpo Kalsang Dondrup, and Khenmo Pema Choekyi.
