

Image: XXth-IABS-Leipzig-University

Intellexus Panel at the XXth Congress of the International Association of Buddhist Studies

The Intellexus Project was presented at the XXth Congress of the International Association of Buddhist Studies (IABS), which took place in Leipzig from August 10–15, 2025. The panel, “The INTELLEXUS Project: Mapping the Indic and Tibetic Buddhist Text Corpora”, held on August 11, featured 10 presentations by Intellexus members from both the University of Hamburg and Reichman University.

Image: XXth-IABS-Leipzig-University

11:00–11:30 Cohen, Shay (Reichman University):

The Intellexus Platform:

A Technological Leap in Studying Buddhist Intellectual Cultures

11:30–12:00 Bar, Kfir (Reichman University); Hashiloni, Kai Gokan (Reichman University):

Advancing Large Language Models for Sanskrit and Tibetan:

Challenges, Benchmarks, and Future Directions

12:00–12:30 Conlon, Ryan (University of Hamburg):

An Introduction to the Samṣṭatilaka:

A Crossroads of Commentary, Compendium, and Scripture

14:00–14:30 Sundén, Rebecca (University of Hamburg):

The Geology of the Subāhupariṣcchānttrapadārthaṭippaṇī*:

An Overview of Its Sources

14:30–15:00 Yang, Jingyi (University of Hamburg):

Revealing the Interrelationship Between Three Obscure Tantras of the 'Dus pa'i mdo Corpus

Image: XXth-IABS-Leipzig-University

15:00–15:30 Jamtsho, Sonam (University of Hamburg):

Intertextuality Between the Bodhicittabhāvanā (D2591/P3405) and Other Works in the rNying ma rgyud 'bum

16:00–16:30 Choden, Sonam (University of Hamburg):

Who Deserve to Be 'Liberated'? The Buddhist Tantric Ideas of the 'Seven [Kinds of] Transgression/Transgressor' (nyams pa bdun) and 'Ten Fields of Liberation' (bsgral/sgrol ba'i zhing bcu)

16:30–17:00 Qu, Yadi (University of Hamburg):

Yoginī Cintā: Unraveling Identity and Authorship by Examining the Geology of Some Related Tantric Buddhist Texts

17:00–17:30 Bajetta, Nicola (University of Hamburg):

A Series of (Un)fortunate Events: On Smṛtijñānakīrti*'s (Mis)adventures in Tibet and the Transmission of the 'Jam dpal gsang Idan Cycle

17:30–18:00 Jia, Shanshan (University of Hamburg):

Yaśomitra's Etymological Analysis of prāṭīyasamutpāda in the Context of Vyākaraṇa and Buddhist Philosophy