

Buddhism & AI Initiative

Image: The Buddhism & AI Initiative

Intellexus Guest Lecture Series

Monday, 23 February

9:00

via Zoom

Chris Scammell

(Buddhism & AI Initiative)

Buddhism & AI Initiative - Background and Current Work

Over the past year, the initiative has engaged with over 150 Buddhists—including teachers, scholars, and technologists—to understand perspectives on AI. They have developed a “field framework” to map various “theories of change” regarding how to respond to this technology. These conversations address “Why Buddhism and AI?” from two angles: the implications of AI on Buddhist practice and how Buddhist wisdom might steer AI development.

