ARCAS-Intellexus Workshop 3

March 8–10, 2026
Dzongsar Institute, Chauntra, India

The workshop focuses on the collaboration between the ARCAS project, which is devoted to the study of early literature of the rNying-ma tradition, and the ERC Synergy Intellexus project whose goal is to map the Indic and Tibetic Buddhist text corpora. In particular, it will be devoted to the proofreading of the bibliographical material compiled by ARCAS in preparation of the forthcoming book publication and the following online publication of selected data to the Intellectual Ecosystem Database currently being developed by Intellexus.

It will be led by Dorji Wangchuk and Orna Almogi, and will include the ARCAS team, which currently consists of Khenpo Tashi Dorje, Khenpo Choephel Norbu, Khenpo Kalsang Dondrup, Khenmo Pema Choekyi, and Khenpo Ugyen Phuntshok.
